Frequently Asked Questions:

When do I pick up the parking decal? Parking decals are available for pick up during orientation. If unable to pick up, see Mr. Tischler.

May someone else bring my application in for me? Yes, but it is your responsibility to make sure that the forms are complete with signature, copies, no unpaid parking tickets, or outstanding textbooks.

Can someone else pick up my parking decal? Only students or their parents may pick up decals.

May I laminate my decal? No. Laminated decals will be considered “VOID”. You will receive a fine and be required to purchase a second decal. (Pull paper off the back of the decal and adhere to passenger’s side front windshield lower corner.)

Additional Parking and Driving Expectations:

In addition to the parking guidelines outlined on the parking application, Walton Administration expects all drivers and passengers to conduct themselves in a responsible manner while driving on Walton property and in local subdivisions.

All student drivers should understand that the following violations WILL result in their loss of parking privileges.

1. Leaving campus without checking out through PPO.
2. Suspension for any drug, alcohol, or weapons violation.
3. Excessive tardies.
4. Reckless driving (includes speeding through any part of the parking lot).
5. Entering the bus lane area before or after school without the permission of Administration.
