- Department Representatives (9 voting members)
 - Career Tech (Whit Hubbard)
 - Skills USA and Robotics (Whit to send minutes)
 - English/ESOL (Greg Fleenor)
 - Proud of our GHP finalists
 - Math (Jennifer West)
 - Both Walton nominees were accepted into GHP (Jayson Wu and Kevin Wu)
 - Walton Math Team competed at Columbia University's nation-wide tournament on 4/1. Team placed 6th out of approximately 80 teams. One student (Daniel Shu) placed individually, and was a member of the 3rd place "mixer" team.
 - Walton's Summer Math Camp for Logic and Puzzles is registering now – June 5th-8th at Dickerson Middle School. Registration is at <https://www.waltonmathteam.com/summer-camp>
 - JV Math Team won the county division for this year. They have been invited to the State finals.
 - Three of the top five JV students in the county are Walton Raiders – Arvind Saligrama (1st), Elizabeth Sims (4th), and Russell Emerine (5th).
 - Varsity came in first, but we don't have individual scores yet.
 - Media/Guidance (Liz Manguno)
 - Guidance
 - Registered 24 students during private school registration day.
 - Wrapping up 9th advisement plans with those who were unable to attend before break.
 - Preparing for Honors Night and our Junior presentation on preparing for college.
 - The Counseling office and Records will have some summer hours for new student enrollments, but will be closed the weeks of June 19th, 26th, and July 3rd for the move.

- Media Center
 - The Media Center has started sending emails to the parents of students with overdue books and/or fines. Students also continue to receive a printed notice in homeroom. Early indications suggest that this is helping students remember to return books, avoid fines, and clear their obligations.

- PE/Fine Arts (Maggie Taylor)
 - Visual Art had two students' art work, Kaiya Plagenhoef and Cece Lu, accepted into the Atlanta High School Art Exhibit at the Dogwood Festival! Kaiya received Honorable Mention-huge honor to get work accepted into this art competition! Kaiya also received Best in Show in the East Cobb Kiwanis Art Competition. Her work will go onto state for further judging!!!
 - We have 53 seniors that have qualified for the fine arts diploma seal from the state of Georgia. This is the first year of the diploma seal and students had to complete four years of fine arts classes, community service, extracurricular activities, and a capstone presentation to be eligible for this honor.
 - Kathleen Petka had her baby!
